Dear Sir :

Understanding that you had written the Address delivered at Concert Hall, by MRS. GEN. GAINES, in short hand, and that it will be speedily published, we, as a Board of Directors of the St. Louis Mechanics' Institute, avail ourselves of this opportunity to place at your disposal, our heartfelt testimony of the high regard which we entertain, for the distinguished individual, GENERAL GAINES, and his lovely Lady, for the very great interest which they manifested, in the welfare and prosperity of the Institute.

The means of defence which Gen. Gaines proposed, in the able papers which he read, to large and crowded audiences, before the Institute, will, if carried into effect, in our humble opinion, place him high, as a benefactor to his country, and unquestionably rank him amongst military men of the greatest distinction. By his plan, our seaboard and harbors will be protected from the incursions of an enemy, or combination of enemies; and we give it as our opinion, that the General's plan of Military Defence, displays great professional skill, and is worthy the notice and consideration of the Government, under which we enjoy so many blessings.

Our best wishes will ever follow General Gaines, and his amiable and accomplished Lady.

S. A. M. SHIPP, Chairman of the B'd of Managers.
