

THE HISTORY AND
PROGRESS OF POOR-LAW
NURSING

BY

MISS ELEANOR C. BARTON, R.R.C.,

WITH PREFACE BY

SIR ARTHUR DOWNES, M.D.

LONDON:

LAW & LOCAL GOVERNMENT PUBLICATIONS LIMITED,
27 TO 29, FURNIVAL STREET, E.C.4.

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

Preface	v
Treatment in By-gone Years	1
Liverpool Pioneers: Work of Agnes Jones	4
Progress of Sick Nursing Generally	6
Establishment of Separate Poor-Law Infirmaries	8
Nursing Order of 1913	10
Professional Associations, Societies and Councils	12
Establishment of General Nursing Council: Poor-Law Training Schools	15
Poor-Law Hospitals—
(1) Approved for Complete Training	17
(2) Approved for Affiliated Training	19
(3) Approved for Associated Training	19
Nurses' War Service	20
Poor-Law Training Schools: Advantages to the Nurses	22
Outstanding Landmarks	25

The contents of this publication were originally contributed as articles to the Poor-Law Officers' Journal.